Luiza is an 18-year-old girl from Velikiy, Novgorod, Russia. She describes her hometown as a small town but a very old town. It was founded in 1859 and it's one of the oldest cities in Russia. She is well acquainted with its historic and cultural values. She is proud of her heritage and is very excited to share it. She lives with her mother, her baby sister and her aunt. Her grandparents are not far away and they come over often to visit. Her family is very supportive and she shares many interests with her mother such as going to theaters, museums and reading. She thoroughly enjoys her grandfather, as he not only teaches her chemistry but how to cook! He also shows her many outdoor activities such as fishing, gardening, skiing, swimming and jogging. She has also traveled extensively to Spain, Italy, France, Poland, Germany, Sweden, Finland and some countries in the Middle East.

Luiza is a very sociable person with lots of friends that mean a lot to her. Luiza says that friendship is very important and worth every effort. She is looking forward to putting in that effort to make friends in the United States. She is very open and honest and has an ability to adapt to any new situation.

Her interest includes Russian history, social science, English and Russian literature. She plans a career in international relations. Current events in the world's politics have always held strong interest for her. She is also very excited about being able to immerse herself in US culture! Her teachers describe her as intelligent and focused. She has excellent grades in English and takes part in the English language Olympiads. She is also a person of wide interest and has a strong set of values that guides her every day.

Luiza has the ability to interact well with fellow students and teachers and she has the drive to succeed in any school that she may be placed.
